Membership excellence for your lifestyle.

Galt Country Club (GCC) is a private member-owned golf course nestled along the Grand River. The golf course has a storied history and remains the oldest golf course in Waterloo Region, established in 1906. Offering a unique mix of superior golf, curling, dining and social atmosphere, the Club puts an emphasis on maintaining tradition and excellence.

The Stanley Thompson designed golf course features impeccable course grooming, mature trees and spectacular views of the Grand River. The course conditioning, natural beauty and engaging amenities have truly set the standard for private clubs in the area. Galt Country Club is a distinctive place where families, couples and individuals can enjoy premium recreation and social activities year round.

With a strong family identity, the membership at Galt Country Club supports grass-roots Junior programming which has nurtured and developed elite amateur and professional players. We enjoy offering a range of events and programs that support an active membership and build a strong sense of community within the Club, and the community at large.
